

MEDIA ADVISORY – June 8, 2011

Northwest Nazarene University Media Contact:

Hollie Lindner (208) 870-3347

hmlindner@nnu.edu

College of Western Idaho Media Contact:

Jennifer Couch (208) 562-3508

jennifercouch@cwidaho.cc

NNU and CWI partner through Articulation Agreement

Nampa, Idaho – College of Western Idaho (CWI) and Northwest Nazarene University (NNU) will join forces to formalize an articulation agreement that will provide students with a clear path toward earning a bachelor's degree.

The signing event takes place MONDAY, JUNE 13, 10 A.M. 2ND FLOOR PATIO of the COLLEGE OF WESTERN IDAHO NAMPA CAMPUS, 5500 EAST OPPORTUNITY DRIVE.

The agreement allows CWI students to easily transfer to Northwest Nazarene University and take advantage of NNU's degree programs designed for traditional students as well as professionals seeking to advance their career.

Students who earn an associate's degree from CWI will be granted junior standing at NNU and will be eligible to transfer up to 62 credits. These students will receive a waiver of all general education requirements with the following exceptions: THEO2100 Introduction to Christian Theology, an elective Bible Literature or Theology course, KINE1000 Fundamentals of Wellness, an approved capstone course, and one cross-cultural experience. Students who earn 28-59 credits at CWI will be granted sophomore standing; CWI courses will be substituted for NNU requirements on a course-by-course basis.

Founded in 2007, College of Western Idaho is a public, open-admission and comprehensive community college committed to providing affordable access to quality teaching and learning opportunities to the residents of western Idaho. For more information, visit www.cwidaho.cc or call (208) 562-3000.

Founded in 1913, Northwest Nazarene University is a Christian comprehensive university, offering over 60 areas of study and 19 masters degrees in seven different disciplines. The University now serves over 2,000 undergraduate and graduate students, over 6,000 continuing education students and 2,300 high school students through the concurrent credit program. For more information, visit www.nnu.edu or call (208) 467-8100.